Baitullah is the story of millions of children across the world, and especially in India, who are exploited and denied their childhood every day, kept out of classrooms and pushed into earning a daily wage for their family due to poverty, lack of awareness neglect and apathy. Most are hidden away in sweatshops making shoes, jewelry and firecrackers. We urge you to support Mukul Madhav Foundation's efforts in rescuing, rehabilitating and reintegrating children at risk of child labour across India. We have rescued, rehabilitated and supported with counselling 250+ children in Madhya Pradesh and Bihar.
